

IMPORTANT NOTES & FACULTY

1. All courses are scheduled in accordance with New York State's minimum requirements for contact hours.

2. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

3. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

4. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

NYS CONTACT HOUR REQUIREMENTS

Regular semester courses are scheduled in accordance with New York State's minimum requirements for contact hours. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

5. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

FACULTY SENATE POLICIES GOVERNING FINAL EXAMS

1. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

2. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

3. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

To minimize distractions during written exams, students should plan to remain

REGULAR SEMESTER COURSES CAN NOT BE HELD DURING

1. The following information is provided for your reference regarding the minimum contact hours required for each course.

(SUBJECT TO CHANGE)